Woodhouse has its own free music festival.

Hyde Park Unity Day is an opportunity for local people to come together to share their talents and enjoy music, food, dancing, craft and art activities. The first event took place in August 1996. It was organised by the Hyde Park Residents Association as a way to change the negative view of the area that was being promoted in the press at the time and to highlight the positive aspects of life in Hyde Park for those living, working and studying there.

Since then, Unity Day has gone from strength to strength. The various bands, musicians and artists who contribute their time and talents to the event all have connections to the local area and offer their time for free.
